Welcome message from the Chair

It is with great enthusiasm that I have volunteered to be Chair for the Sixth International Conference on Adoption Research (ICAR6), taking place in the heart of Montréal from July 8 to 12, 2018.

I still vividly remember my first experience at ICAR, in Leiden in 2010. I was a Ph.D. student at the time and felt privileged to have access to amazing researchers who all shared the same passion about adoption as I did! In just a few days of listening to conferences and paper sessions, sharing with other researchers at poster sessions, or simply chatting with all-star adoption researchers during lunches and tea breaks, I gained more knowledge than I could have in six months of reading peer-reviewed articles! It was clear to me then that I would never miss an ICAR and that this incredible event had to come to Canada. And 8 years later, here we are!

Like me, I hope you will discover (or confirm!) that ICAR is a unique opportunity to be part of an outstanding community of scholars, thinkers, and experts on the latest and most pertinent issues in the field of adoption. Everyone can bring a valuable contribution to the construction of knowledge that can improve policies, practices, and ultimately the well-being of all the members of the adoption triad. You certainly would not want to miss such an opportunity!

I am also very excited to welcome you to Montréal, a city that I had the chance to live in for 13 years when I was a student at Université de Montréal. I highly recommend that you extend your stay in order to enjoy the city’s numerous summer festivals (including the International Jazz Festival) as well as its world-renowned culinary scene. Montréal is a beautiful multicultural city that offers events and activities for every taste!

I hope you will enjoy ICAR6 in Montréal and I look forward to seeing you!

Mot de bienvenue de la présidente

C’est avec grand enthousiasme que je me suis portée volontaire pour organiser la 6e Conférence internationale sur la recherche en adoption (ICAR6), qui aura lieu au cœur de Montréal, du 8 au 12 juillet 2018.

Je me souviens encore très bien de ma première expérience à l’ICAR, à Leiden, en 2010. J’étais étudiante au doctorat et je me sentais si privilégiée d’avoir accès à ces incroyables chercheurs qui partageaient tous la même passion que moi pour l’adoption! En seulement quelques jours, que ce soit par l’écoute de conférences et de plénières, par les échanges avec d’autres chercheurs lors de séances d’affiches scientifiques, ou simplement par les conversations avec des chercheurs de renom lors des pauses et des dîners, je considère avoir acquis plus de connaissances que je n’aurais pu le faire en six mois de lectures d’articles! Il était clair pour moi que je ne voudrais jamais manquer un ICAR et que cet événement incroyable devrait éventuellement se tenir au Canada. Et nous y voilà, huit ans plus tard!

Tout comme moi, j’espère que vous découvrirez (ou confirmerez!) que l’ICAR est une opportunité unique de faire partie de cette communauté exceptionnelle de chercheurs, de penseurs et d’experts des plus récentes et pertinentes questions dans le champ de l’adoption. Tout le monde peut contribuer de manière significative à la construction des connaissances en vue d’améliorer les politiques, les pratiques et, ultimement, le bien-être de tous les membres de la triade adoptive. Vous ne voulez certainement pas manquer cela!

Je suis également très heureuse de vous accueillir à Montréal, une ville où j’ai eu la chance d’habiter pendant 13 ans lorsque j’étais étudiante à l’Université de Montréal. Je vous recommande fortement de prolonger votre séjour afin de profiter de ses nombreux festivals d’été (dont le Festival international de jazz) ainsi que sa scène culinaire de renommée mondiale! Montréal est une superbe ville multiculturelle qui offre des activités et des événements pour tous les goûts!

J’espère que vous apprécierez l’ICAR6 à Montréal et j’ai hâte de vous y voir!

Geneviève Pagé, Ph.D., présidente de l’ICAR6
